

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DONALD RAY DEBOSE,

Plaintiff,

v.

DAVID A. WILDMAN, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 17-cv-03705-SI

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE.
CONTEMPLATED DISMISSAL

Donald Ray Debose, a prisoner at San Quentin State Prison, filed this pro se civil action naming as defendants several California officials (i.e., the Governor, member of the Legislature, justices of the California Supreme Court, another judge, a prosecutor, and former and current members of the California Attorney General's office). He also has applied to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

A prisoner may not bring a civil action in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915 "if the prisoner has, on 3 or more prior occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, unless the prisoner is under imminent danger of serious physical injury." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). Section 1915(g) requires that this court consider prisoner actions dismissed before, as well as after, the statute's 1996 enactment. Tierney v. Kupers, 128 F.3d 1310, 1311-12 (9th Cir. 1997).

For purposes of a dismissal that may be counted under § 1915(g), the phrase "fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted" parallels the language of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6) and carries the same interpretation, the word "frivolous" refers to a case that is "of little weight or importance: having no basis in law or fact," and the word "malicious" refers to a case

1 “filed with the ‘intention or desire to harm another.’” Andrews v. King, 398 F.3d 1113, 1121 (9th
2 Cir. 2005) (citation omitted). Only cases within one of these three categories can be counted as
3 strikes for § 1915(g) purposes, so the mere fact that Debose has filed many cases does not alone
4 warrant dismissal of the present action under § 1915(g). See id. Rather, dismissal of an action
5 under § 1915(g) should only occur when, “after careful evaluation of the order dismissing an 6 [earlier] action, and other relevant information, the district court determines that the action was 7 dismissed because it was frivolous, malicious or failed to state a claim.” Id.

8 Andrews requires that a prisoner be given notice of the potential applicability of § 1915(g),
9 by either the district court or the defendants, but also requires the prisoner to bear the ultimate
10 burden of persuasion that § 1915(g) does not bar pauper status for him. Id. Andrews implicitly 11 allows the court to sua sponte raise the § 1915(g) problem, but requires the court to notify the 12 prisoner of the earlier dismissals it considers to support a § 1915(g) dismissal and allow the 13 prisoner an opportunity to be heard on the matter before dismissing the action. See id. at 1120. A 14 dismissal under § 1915(g) means that a prisoner cannot proceed with his action as a pauper under 15 § 1915, but he still may pursue his claims if he pays the full filing fee at the outset of the action.

16 Debose is now given notice that the court believes the following dismissals may be 17 counted as dismissals for purposes of § 1915(g): First, Debose v. Chappell, N. D. Cal. Case No. C
18 12-4234 SI, was dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, and no
19 appeal was taken. Second, Debose v. Governor Brown, N. D. Cal. Case No. C 12-6169 SI, was 20 dismissed for failure to state a claim. Third, Debose v. Ronald George, Ninth Cir. No. 13-17177
21 (which was the appeal from N. D. Cal. Case No. 12-6169 SI), was determined to be frivolous in an 22 order filed December 19, 2013, and was dismissed on January 10, 2014, when appellant failed to 23 pay the full filing fee as ordered when the appeal was found to be frivolous. The court made its 24 evaluation of these cases based on the dismissal orders and docket sheets in them. See Andrews,
25 398 F.3d at 1120 (sometimes the docket records may be sufficient, and sometime the actual court 26 files may need to be consulted).

1 In light of these dismissals, and because Debose does not appear to be under imminent
2 danger of serious physical injury, he is ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE in writing filed no later
3 than November 6, 2017, why in forma pauperis status should not be denied and this action should 4 not be dismissed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). In the alternative to showing cause why the
5 action should not be dismissed, Debose may avoid dismissal by paying the full $400.00 filing fee
6 by the deadline.

7 IT IS SO ORDERED.
